Member duties

As the Club is run by volunteers, we do require a day from each member to be on duty as race officer as this allows the opportunity for all members to sail.

If your name has been listed against a race, you will need to

- advise the Club Captain If you are unavailable that day, so that another member can be found to act as Race Officer.

If your name has not been listed against a race, you will need to advise the Club Captain, the race day you will be performing your duty.

- ensure you arrive at least 1 hour before the first race start. Assist with taking our rescue boat out. Check safety equipment in boat. (oar, spare lifejacket, enough petrol, anchor, VHF, Bailor, towing line, knife).
- assist sailors arriving late with their rigging.
- liaise with the Duty Officer or other experienced club members to decide on the Course, the Start Line, the positions of the buoys and where to place them. (if you have carried out a motorboat safety course)
- if no Duty Officer present on the day, you need to run start race procedures, raise appropriate flags if necessary and take on the results for the race.
- confirm with Club Captain to see if you can sail. Strong winds mean you need to run the rescue boat (if you have done a motorboat safety course) to help sailors in distress or if there are too many boats you may need to assist the Duty Officer in the tower.
- pick up buoys (if you have carried out a motorboat safety course)
- rinse and store rescue boat.
- bring some biscuits, milk for the tired sailors.
- Do the dishes, vacuum the club floor.
